A PAPER MILL IN PROSPECT.

Fort Worth Likely to Secure a Plant to Manufacture Paper.

Yesterday a GAZETTE reporter had the pleasure of interviewing Colonels Smith, McCart and Burbridge, who have just reterned from a visit to Kansas City, St. Louis, Chicago and other eastern points. They went on private business, but while away put in some good licks for Fort Worth. She finally exasperated Wilson so much on one occasion she had been over to his house, that he remarked to a visitor that, if she ever came back there again he would drive her off the place. This remark of Wilson's came to Ledbetter's ears, and arming himself yesterday morning, he went over to Wilson's house, and smilingly asked Wilson if he had made the remark just mentioned above. Wilson replied that he had, whereupon Ledbetter whipped out his pistol and began shooting. He fired three times, one shot missing Wilson entirely, another wounding him in the shoulder and another in the thigh. Wilson was unarmed, and consequently could make no resistance.
